

American Academy of Addiction Psychiatry

Addictions And Their Treatment

VIRTUAL COURSE

SEPTEMBER 13 - 14, 2024

In accordance with the disclosure policy of the American Academy of Addiction Psychiatry, as well as standards set forth by JAC policies and guidelines and the ACCME, the JAC expects accredited providers to present learners with unbiased, independent, and objective information in all activities. Accredited providers must be in compliance with the Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education. Therefore, Presenter(s), Planner(s), Reviewer(s), and all others involved in the planning or content development of this activity were required to disclose all financial relationships within the past 24 months.

For this activity, the following relevant financial relationships were disclosed:

Kevin Sevarino, MD, PhD GSK Stock

All disclosures have been reviewed and all relevant financial relationships have been mitigated.

All other individuals involved in the planning and presentation of this activity have no relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies to disclose.

All speakers have been advised that any recommendations involving clinical medicine must be based on evidence that is accepted within the profession of medicine as adequate justification for their indications and contraindications in the care of patients. All scientific research referred to, reported, or used in the presentation must conform to the generally accepted standards of experimental design, data collection, and analysis. Faculty have also been advised that they must not actively promote or sell products or services that serve their professional or financial interests during accredited education.
